

The death that nailed death

Meet the man who conquers death and commands life

Tuesday: 1.10–1.50pm

Thursday: 12.15–12.50pm and 1.10–1.50pm

Speaker: William Taylor

- The programme for City workers at St Helen's provides many opportunities to ask the big questions of life. Whether you are someone who has never considered Jesus' claims, are looking at the evidence or are a committed Christian, you will be very welcome.

This spring at the lunchtime talks we are looking into the centre of the Christian faith: Jesus' crucifixion. There are lots of opinions about the significance of Jesus' death; come and hear the specially commissioned, authoritative explanation of Matthew, the eye-witness and gospel writer.

Talks are followed by a Q&A. Lunch is available.

St Helen's Bishopsgate

■ The death that nailed death

January 21/23

A precious death
Matthew 26:1–16

January 28/30

A death to remember
Matthew 26:17–30

February 4/6

An unavoidable death
Matthew 26:31–46

February 11/13

A purposeful death
Matthew 26:47–56

February 18/20

A crowning death
Matthew 26:57–68

February 25/27

A necessary death
Matthew 26:29–75

March 3/5

A criminal death
Matthew 27:1–10

March 10/12

An innocent death
Matthew 27:11–26

March 17/19

A royal death
Matthew 27:27–37

March 24/26

A saving death
Matthew 27:38–44

March 31/2

A God forsaken death
Matthew 27:45–56

April 7

The death of death
(Easter service)

■ Find us

St Helen's Church
Great St Helen's
London EC3A 6AT

■ What's on at St Helen's

45 minute 'executive summary'
of Jesus' message. Contact us for a guided walk through of the eye-witness evidence one-
to-one.

Christianity Explored

Many City workers have enjoyed this informal, free seven-session lunchtime or evening course to investigate who Jesus is, what he came to do and what difference he makes. Visit our website to find details of the next course.

Bible studies for City workers

Monday: 1.05–1.50pm
Tuesday: 7.15–9.30pm
Wednesday: 7.45–8.30am or 6.15–8.30pm.

City workers' prayer meeting

Monday: 5.30–6pm.

City weekend away

28 February–1 March (Friday evening to Sunday lunchtime).

Questions for Life

During the Questions for Life
weeks (23 March–9 April) Christians working across central London will be giving friends and colleagues the opportunity to hear more about the claims of Jesus Christ. They will host short presentations of Jesus' message followed by questions and answers in office rooms, pubs and restaurants. Please get in touch to see how easy it is for you to host one.

For more information on anything please email Wes:
w.illingsworth@st-helens.org.uk
or visit www.st-helens.org.uk/city

www.st-helens.org.uk